

ASSISTED LIVING AT SUGAR HILL

Assisted Living at Sugar Hill is owned and operated by Huggins Hospital. Both independence and quality care are provided for older adults in a beautiful home-like environment. You will find a beautifully decorated facility with a community parlor and dining room- the perfect place for family gatherings.

SUGAR HILL
RETIREMENT COMMUNITY

Located in picturesque Wolfeboro, New Hampshire, Assisted Living at Sugar Hill is surrounded by natural beauty with magnificent views of New Hampshire's Lakes Region. With evening sunsets over distant mountains and a beautifully landscaped village green, residents will find this location truly spectacular.

At Assisted Living at Sugar Hill, we combine a beautiful environment with exceptional personal care and life fulfilling activities for our residents. Our Assisted Living Program begins with a well-trained and licensed staff giving personalized care designed to meet the specific needs of each of our residents. We work diligently to make residents feel comfortable within their new home. While offering comfort and security 24 hours a day, we also encourage residents to maintain their independence. Our Programs include a diverse list of well-planned activities for residents to enjoy that will accommodate the active and the not so active life-style.

Assisted Living at Sugar Hill is dedicated to promoting independence, community service, and creativity while respecting the dignity of those living within the community.
